

Grant Permission To Public Service To Bill Bi-Monthly

The Illinois Commerce Commission has authorized the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois to bill approximately 600,000 of its gas and electric customers every other month instead of monthly.

Following commission approval, the company issued a list of "questions and answers" relating to bi-monthly billing as a matter of customer information.

Q. What is bi-monthly billing?
A. Bi-monthly billing means that gas and electric meters of all residential customers and most commercial customers will be read every other month instead of monthly, and bills will be issued for two months' service.

Q. Why has the Company adopted bi-monthly billing?

A. The reasons for adopting bi-monthly billing are operating economies, customer savings and convenience, and conservation of man power.

Q. Do any other utility companies bill on a bi-monthly basis?

A. At least thirty United States gas and electric utility systems with 11,000,000 customers bill on a bi-monthly basis.

Q. What savings will be affected under this plan?

A. Estimated annual savings of $500,000 (before federal income taxes.)

Q. Will this new plan be of any advantage to the customer?

A. Yes. Meter readers will call only every other month and fewer bills will require fewer trips to the offices to make payments. Customer expenditures for postage and service charges for checks and postal orders will be reduced. It is estimated that savings to customers will aggregate approximately $100,000 a year.

Q. What is the total of residential and commercial customers who will be billed on the bi-monthly basis?

A. Approximately 600,000 customers.

Q. When will this new plan of billing be put into effect?

A. It will be started in August, 1951.

Q. How will the Company notify its customers of the new billing plan?

A. The Company proposes to notify its customers by:

1. Mailing to each customer at an appropriate time an enclosure describing the bi-monthly billing plan.

2. Printing a notice on each customer's first bi-monthly bill stating that this bill has been prepared on a bi-monthly basis.

Q. Will there be any change in the form of the bill?

A. No, the present post card bill form will continue to be used.

Q. Will all residential customers be billed on a bi-monthly basis?

A. Yes.

Q. How will commercial customers be billed?

A. Bills shall be prepared on a bi-monthly basis for commercial customers whose demands are not metered.

Q. When will meters be read under the bi-monthly plan?

A. Meters will be read every other month at about the same time they are read presently.

Q. Will the net payment period be changed?

A. No, the net payment period, which is at least 10 days, will remain unchanged. The due date will be approximately the same date as present bills are due.

Q. May customers make an advance payment in the interim month?

A. Yes. If a customer desires to make advance payments, the Company will issue a coupon book to be used in the months the customer does not receive a bill.

Q. Will there be a plan for gas heat customers to make advance payments?

A. Yes, a separate coupon book specifically designed for this type of payment will be available.

Q. May a customer use his coupon book to make payments instead of using his bill?

A. The coupon in the coupon book is to be used only for advance payments in the months in which the customer does not receive a bill.

Q. How may a customer obtain a coupon book?

A. Upon request to any Public Service office in person, by mail or by telephone.

Q. Can a lost coupon book be replaced?

A. A new coupon book will be issued upon request.

Q. Who will fill out the coupon book?

A. The Company will fill out the front cover showing complete information. The customer should fill out the individual coupons when making payments.

Q. How will municipalities and governmental agencies be billed?

A. Municipalities, schools and other governmental agencies using the Company's electric or gas service for a governmental purpose will be billed on a monthly basis.

TOWN OFFICIALS 'ON CARPET' NO REPORTS

(CNS)—Two officials of Oak Lawn were directed Friday to appear in the State's Attorney's office to explain why they have failed to publish a detailed financial report for the last three years.

The officials are Treasurer Elmer Hanagan of 9234 South 54th avenue, and the clerk, William Gaddis, 9632 South Cook avenue.

The action was taken after the Citizens Non-Partisan association, headed by its president, Attorney Will Gierach of 5039 West 95th street, visited Assistant State's Attorney Art Dillner.

Gierach stated that although the state statutes require that each municipality shall publish a detailed financial report around April 10th of each year, the Oak Lawn village treasurer has failed to publish such a report for the years 1948, 1949 and 1950.

The matter was turned over to Assistant State's Attorney Earl Strayhorn who called the village treasurer and clerk and directed them to come before him on Tuesday, August 7.

It was explained the officials could be tried under the state criminal code for malfeasance in office for "palpable omission of duty."

Under The Cross Of Malta

Have you seen the barrel in town? This week it is in Ida's confectionary. The money collected will be turned over to the Red Cross to be used for flood relief. At a time of disaster the Red Cross is called upon for aid and right now the Red Cross needs funds to carry on the relief work in Kansas. So give according to your ability.

To all veterans to think over. The growing demand in Congress for drastic cuts in non-defense federal expenditures can mean only one thing. Powerful groups are promoting the idea that no substantial cut can be made in federal expenditures without repealing or modifying those phases of the GI Bill of Rights that promise adequate hospitalization, facilities for all disabled veterans; compensation and pension benefits for disabled veterans and their dependents; pension benefits for widows and orphans.

If you think this plea is based on a "false alarm" the records will tell us younger World War II veterans what happened in 1932-33, when the National Economy League lobby persuaded Congress to repeal certain veteran welfare benefits. As a result, thousands of veterans were made destitute by the loss of their pension rights, other thousands were forced to seek public charity when their compensation and pension payments were cruelly reduced. Still others were actually turned out of government hospitals into the streets. The benefits which congress will be urged to destroy are important to you and yours. If you don't need them today, you may need them tomorrow.

Woman's auxiliary will have regular meeting Thursday, August 2, at 8 p. m.

VFW will have their regular meeting, Thursday August 9 at 8 p. m.

If you served over seas you should be in the VFW.—Adam Schneider, post commander.

P. S. All members please return sold and unsold circus tickets so we can straighten out with Internal Collector of Revenue.

Cars Collide On Mokena Street

Last Thursday, about 12:20 p. m. two Mokena people figured in a slight auto accident. James Kule going west, pulled out from in front of his home on Front street, it is alleged made a left hand swing, and then turned right stopping in front of the Braun blacksmith shop. Mr. Kule is reported, stated he was going to turn at the alley, just east of the blacksmith shop.

Jack Medema, who was also going west directly back of Mr. Kule, could not avoid hitting the Kule car in this maneuvering of driving. Jack Medema claims he was driving about 20 miles an hour.

The state police were called to the scene by Martin Medema, father of Jack. Answering the call was Mr. Anderson, who, upon examining the car tracks of Mr. Kule, gave a ticket to the latter on two charges, an improper right turn and not giving a turn signal. He also gave Jack Medema a ticket for not having his car under control.

At the trial held in Judge John Balaz court Friday night, Jack Medema plead not guilty. The law claims no one has his car under control if he hits another car even if unavoidable. Both were fined $3 and $2 cost.

The damage to the Kule car amounts to about $35 and to the Medema car about $129.

Any Twenties? Note All Serial Numbers

If you are one of those persons lucky enough to get $20 bills and able to hold on to them long enough to note the serial numbers, your attention is directed to these numbers: H44876901A through H44877000A. The bills numbering 100, were filched in a robbery in June of the Laddonia, Missouri State bank. Notify the FBI if you get any of them.

Tinley Couple of the Marine Corps Has New Experience in U. S. Service

Destination, Tinley Park, Illinois! A quick check on the map shows Sgt. and Mrs. Paul A. Schmidt that they'll have to cover exactly 2230 miles to reach their home from their old Marine Corps duty station at the Department of the Pacific, San Francisco. The Schmidts established what is believed to be a precedent in Marine Corps Reserve discharge procedures, when they were both released to inactive duty on the same day, Monday, July 23 in San Francisco. They were both Sergeants and were both recalled to active duty last August 8th. (Official USMC Photo).

COOP THIEVES OUT ON THE PROWL AGAIN

Chicken thieves visited the farm of Vernon Hansen of Frankfort township, Friday night, and succeeded in getting away with some chickens. The owner is not sure just how many they got by the time he became aware of their presence and shot four times in their direction with his double-barrel shot gun.

Hansen in reporting the affair to a Frankfort officer, Fred Breymeyer, said that he thinks three men were in the chicken house and that he believes he might have hit one.

Breymeyer summoned a state patrolman, Michael Frankovich, and they searched the vicinity of the farm situated on Sauk trail one mile east of Frankfort. They found footprints on the Hansen yard but no culprits were located.

Lad 13 Injured In Combine Accident

Elroy, the thirteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Erdmann, of Mokena, was injured severely Wednesday afternoon, July 25, about 4 o'clock when he slipped and fell from a combine. Paul Wilson was driving the machine on the farm of Fred Scheel and Elroy jumped off to see if the hopper was filled.

A wheel ran over both legs and four fractures were sustained on the right leg near the ankle. Dr. Buckley, of Frankfort, was called and the boy was removed to Silver Cross hospital. Dr. Hedges, the bone specialist, of Joliet, was consulted and an operation was performed Saturday when surgical pins were used to secure the bones in place. His condition is reported as improved.

TO COLLECT PERSON'L TAXES DUE 1946-1950

Tax bills will be sent to all Will county residents who have not paid their personal taxes for all or any one year, 1946 to 1950 inclusive. Penalties will be added to the bills.

Byron Hunt, county treasurer and his office staff, are working on the bills so as to have them in the mail sometime in September.

This unpaid total is needed and the Civic committee, of Will county, determined to back the plan when it was disclosed that delinquencies increased from 10% of the amount levied in 1945 to 25% in 1949.

The following facts were listed by the secretary of the Civic committee:

1. It is a legal tax.
2. The law provides the County Collector with the means for the collection of Personal Property Taxes.
3. The receipts from Personal Property Taxes are distributed to the various taxing bodies in exactly the same proportion as Real Estate Taxes.
4. Losses in collection of Personal Property Taxes make a higher tax rate on Real Estate.
5. The levy on Personal Property is about 20 per cent of the total Tax Extension.
6. Non payment because of objection to the Assessment is not a good excuse. The Assessor and Board of Review is the proper channel for such objection.
7. The County Treasurer is going to continue the card system of delinquent accounts as a permanent measure.

Flood Relief Funds Needed by Red Cross

Red Cross surveys of damage to homes in the four-state Midwest flood area reveal that destruction is far greater than is usual in the average flood. In many places the rising water surged over levees and flood walls so suddenly and with such force that houses were torn from their foundations, disintegrated into kindling, and smashed against the sides of other buildings. The effect was more like a tornado than a flood, according to John C. Wilson, Red Cross assistant general manager, who has just returned to Washington after making a complete flood survey. Mr. Wilson stated that 1538 homes were totally destroyed and that of this number 850 were in Kansas City, Kansas. In addition, 19,994 homes were damaged, some of which will be very costly to repair. More than 52,000 families have had flood losses, and already more than 17,000 families have registered with the Red Cross for long-term assistance in reestablishing their homes.

At the peak of the shelter operation, Red Cross nurses, nurses aide's and gray ladies were bathing 500 babies each day, and to provide feeding for the infants bulk milk was delivered to a Topeka hospital where the bottles were filled, fitted with nipples, sterilized and delivered to the shelters. A total of 250 gallons of pasteurized homogenized milk a day is being prepared this way.

Government funds of $25,000,000 authorized by Congress will be used to aid in restoring public property and to help big businesses to get back into the harness in order that workers may have employment, while the Red Cross will give financial aid for the repairing and rebuilding of private homes and will assist small family-operated businesses if they are without credit resources.

Arrangements have now been made with all banks in Will county to receive flood relief funds. The quota for Will County Chapter is $4400. All voluntary cash contributions should be sent to the local banks in Mokena, Frankfort and New Lenox and to the following local chairmen, Orland township, Mrs. Sherman Knox, Brook street, Orland Park; Tinley Park, Melvin Keup, care State bank; Oak Forest, Mrs. Harrell P. Carney, 156 and Lamont streets; Palos Park, Mrs. Joel Collins, Seminole road and 123rd street; Matteson, Mrs. S. Robert St. Pierre, 3703 W. 216 street; and Markham, Mrs. George W. Strein, 163rd and Turner streets.

"Just Been Thinkin'"

An old adage tells us "As the twig is bent the tree will grow." Throughout the years we find countless examples to prove the wisdom of this timeworn statement. Gradually each life resolves itself into a one-way street; and, for each of us, the days, with our chosen happinesses or discontents, actually become the house in which we live...

IF WE CANNOT FIND BEAUTY

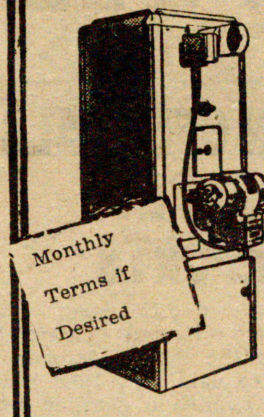

If we cannot see beauty in Winter
We shall scarcely find beauty in Spring;
For the way we appreciate nature
Determines what nature will bring...
If we cannot see God in the mountains,
In the stripling, the grain, and the grass,
We may never behold Him completely
When this lower existence will pass...
If we turn from a handful of measures,
A whole symphony's splendor is gone;
And each day will be dull and insipid
Unless we can sing at the dawn...
Each moment that passes will flavor
Our futures with sorrow or mirth;
And if we would find beauty in Heaven
Let us learn to find beauty on Earth!

Famous MM Model U tractors are new factory-built to give you all the advantages of LP gas.

LP gas burns clean and prevents carbon deposit and crankcase dilution. Oil lasts longer due to less contamination. There are no unpleasant fumes or smoke. LP gas burns slowly and evenly, giving smooth power without "ping". Hammering of bearings is eliminated. These tractors run cooler with more time between overhauls.

Let us give you all the facts about MM VISIONLINED U tractors, both standard and universal treads. They meet all safety requirements.

Orland All Stars

July 18 the Orland All-Stars took on the Alpine Plow boys in what turned out to be a wild game. Even though the game had a very lopsided score there were many things to make it interesting.

Price, the losing pitcher, walked eight in one inning resulting in nine runs. The definite star was Morlock with four put outs, and

Half Sox Drop Thriller to Steger

Kiwanis 15 to 12

The Half Sox journeyed to Steger to play the strong Kiwanis team of the Chicago Heights league Wednesday evening, July 18. The Half Sox sent the Kiwanis starting pitcher to the showers in the second inning with a barrage of extra base hits combined with his own wildness. Benning relieved Hunt on the mound for Steger and he had complete control of the game to the end. Propp pitched well for Tinley but was in trouble in every inning but the first due mainly to his lack of control.

Half Sox Bounce Peotone Little

Cats 15-2

The Half Sox gained revenge for an earlier set back at the hands of the Little Cats of Peotone Tuesday evening, July 24th. Roger Hug stunned the Little cats with an excellent four hitter on the Fair Grounds at Peotone and received almost perfect support afield. The Half Sox jumped on Strubbar for two runs in the third, and then got eight more in the fourth off Strubbar and his replacement Nickel. Siemen was called in to stop the barrage in the sixth inning but was nicked for five more runs.

Pipeline Issue To Be Heard by Cook County Board

(CNS)—The franchise squabble before the Cook county board Friday for completion of the 30-inch Texas-Illinois pipeline was continued to next Friday.

Construction of the pipeline is almost completed to the Cook county line but is being held up until franchises for the Texas-Illinois Natural Gas Pipeline Co. and the Chicago District Pipeline Co. can be completed.

Commission John J. Duffy, chairman of special utilities and rights of way committee of the county board, continued the hearing to give company attorneys and Asst. State's Atty. Melvin Wingersky time to compile further statistics.

Issuing of the franchises were held up when the county board commissioners agreed that public utilities must pay for the use of public lands and highways for laying of pipelines. The Chicago pipeline company is asking for a renewal of the 1931 resolution which permitted it to install pipe lines on public property without paying compensation. Also it wants permits it has received since then to be included in the renewal or a new resolution. The 1931 resolution expired this week.

Duffy said that a new resolution or a renewal would not be proper, instead an ordinance would be necessary. The utility company protested. At the July 19 hearing representatives of both pipeline companies admitted that they have not and do not contemplate paying for the privilege of crossing public lands.

When Commissioner James Ashenden at Friday's hearing asked Henry Gardner, attorney for the Texas-Illinois company, if his company now contemplates paying compensation to the county, Gardner said it has no objection to a reasonable compensation payment.

Gardner said there is a great need to hurry the granting of the franchises. Local commitments of the Texas-Illinois pipeline company begin Nov. 1, he said. Also, completion of the pipe line, he told the board, is necessary for national defense.

Commissioner Daniel Ryan, chairman of the board's finance committee, said that the board had not charged for rights of way across public lands many years ago because the board was anxious to bring gas and electricity into county towns. The only way to do so was, in effect, to subsidize the companies by not charging them, he said.

"These days are gone forever," Duffy said at the July 19 hearing. Duffy emphasized, "I won't vote for this unless there is compensation, that is, if compensation is legal."

The 30-inch pipeline is being laid from the Texas Gulf to a Joliet meter station. This is to be followed by a 20-inch line to Volo, Lake county, thence thru Cook county.

Chicago District will get its gas from the Joliet station and will sell it to Peoples Gas Light & Coke co. and the Northern Indiana Public Service co.

The Public Service Company of Northern Illinois, a People's Gas subsidiary, will buy its gas at Volo for distribution to its customers.

According to Texas-Illinois, the proposed pipeline through Cook county would pass through Hanover and Barrington townships. Volo is the planned terminus for the pipeline, with a connection near West Chicago and another 3 1/2 miles east of Elgin.

ANGLING ANGLES
by old Hi

When the ice is out of the northern lakes, hundreds of anglers invade the mountains to fish for lake trout. Call them toge, gray trout, Mackinaw trout, or Great Lakes trout, they'll give you plenty of brisk action on light tackle in the Spring.

There's real adventure in going after big lakers at this season, for you can catch them by trolling or casting along the shores, in fairly shallow water, where they fight hard due to the cold temperatures. And they usually strike with a rush, for they are hungry and won't let any choice chow escape them.

To have the best sport, Old Hi suggests you use the "Columbia" tubular glass fresh water trolling rod, with the tip measuring about 6 feet in length. This is a fine all-purpose rod for Spring trolling, and is equally suitable for the medium sized Chinook and silver salmon of the West, such as are found in Puget Sound.

For even livelier, more ticklish action, troll with a "Ranger" tubular glass fly rod, using a streamer fly or small, wriggly plug for a lure. This rod is 9 feet long and weighs 6 ounces, and is sturdy enough for the light lures mentioned when the trolling is done over the shallow rocky and sandy bottoms.

With the first rod named, you would want one of the new "Sea Level" level wind reels with capacity for 150 yards of the recently developed nylon cuttyhunk line of 9 thread size.

This is a super special nylon cuttyhunk line that won't kink, swell, or fray, and is just the ticket for long-line angling for big lakers and salmon.

If you handle the glass fly rod, attach either a Sportcraft single action fly reel or an automatic reel, with 60 yards of Dry Flite level nylon fly line of size G or H, and 6 or 9 feet of around 15 pound test continuous length nylon leader material.

These rigs will make trolling for lake trout an exciting event, due to the action afforded. Likely you can find this tackle in your local sporting goods store, but if not then drop a letter to Old Hi, in care of this newspaper, and I'll put you on the right track.

At the same time ask for your free copy of my booklet "Fishing For The Millions," for in it you'll find lots of good dope on how to tease these elusive lakers into your net.

Did you know that on Aug. 28, 1949 at Mantec, Calif., a man by the name of August Livenais, Jr., cast a four ounce lead 735 feet, 10 inches by means of a surf casting outfit? This is the official world's record surf cast ... and quite a toss!

Surf casting is extremely popular and effective on both the Atlantic and Pacific Coasts. It accounts for good catches of such batters as striped bass, weakfish, bluefish, and croakers. Old Hi suggests you send for his free copies of "Salt Water Sports Fishing" and "Pacific Coastal Fishing" and read the chapters on surf casting.

Handy Jim's FIXIN-UP TIPS For Farm and Home

Extra Care: More Eggs

MORE care accorded pullets from the time they leave the brooder house until they start laying will pay off in healthier birds and ultimately in better egg production.

Growing pullets need not be "babied," but they have a few essential needs that must be supplied if they are to prove profitable investments. Among these, the most important are adequate protection, plenty of water and a good ration.

The low-cost range shelter illustrated here, made of Masonite Tempered Preadwood, lumber and wire netting, neatly solves the problem of protection. It provides shade when the sun is scorching and cover when rain falls. It also turns away furred and feathered varmints that prey on chickens, especially at night. The average farmer, accustomed to using hammer and saw, can build this 10 by 10-foot structure in a few hours.

To hold contamination to a minimum, it is advisable to keep range shelters well separated and to move each to clean ground at frequent intervals. The light weight of this type of shelter makes the moving operation easy.

An easy-to-read, detailed plan for building this range shelter is available free. Send a postal to Farm Service Bureau, 111 West Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill., asking for Drawing No. AFB-134.

No Free Lunch

Lesson for August 5, 1951

YOU cannot find the words "economic relations" in the Bible, but you cannot find the word "humanity" in the Bible either. Yet you would not say that the Bible has no message for humanity, and if you say that it has nothing to say about the economic life, it shows you have not thought what the words mean.

"Economic relations" is an expression for everything that goes into life from a business or money standpoint, everything we buy and use, make or raise or manufacture or sell. Money's not everything, but money's into everything.

The Bible speaks about life, including the economic aspect of life. Nobody can live for a day without having some kind of economic relations, or sin (as a hobo does) by not having them.

No Free Lunch
ONE vital part of our economic life is earning a living. A learned professor of economics said that the whole subject can be put into one short sentence: "There is no free lunch." He meant, of course, that everything has to be paid for, by somebody, some time. You may get your board "free," but everything on the table costs somebody something, and if you are not paying for it, some one else must.

Now the Bible teaches that every one who is able to do so, should earn his living. Saint Paul made a rule for his churches: "He that will not work, neither let him eat."

That sounds hard-boiled, but makes sense. The Bible has no use for the hobo, the loafer, the "moocher," the "grifter," the person who thinks the world owes him a living. The world owes no one a living.

The Right to Work
IF it is the duty of all of us to earn our board and keep, on the other hand the world ought to give us the opportunity to do so. Along with the duty of earning a living goes the right to earn a living.

We saw, some weeks ago, that a basic Christian principle for right living is the value of individual persons. This holds good for economics as well as for all other areas of life.

What happens to the man who cannot earn a living? If he becomes an "object of charity," in a short while he loses ambition and self-respect. And if he gets no charity, he starves.

So any system or arrangement of society, or any action or condition permanent or temporary, making it impossible for a man to earn his own living, is harmful to human persons and therefore sinful. No one, in short, has a right to a living, but every one has the right to earn a living.

The Risks of Riches

SO far, you might say that Christianity only says what everybody with common sense can see for himself. But Christianity goes further and says something that most people forget: that getting rich is more dangerous than desirable.

The Bible urges us all to earn our own way; but it does not urge us to get rich. Christ warns us that life does not consist in the "abundance of things" a man possesses. There is no virtue in being as poor as possible.

Still, on the other hand, the more a man's property piles up, the more he is tempted to certain sins: the sin of greed, wanting more than our share, more than we can wisely use; the sin of pride, wanting to have more than any one else in sight; the sin of selfishness, wanting to use what we have for our own benefit exclusively; the sin of hoarding, wanting to fill barns or bank accounts for no particular reason except just to see the pile grow; the sin of materialism, measuring success in terms of dollars.

The main question is: Why do we want it? To have something good, or to do good with it? The big Christian question about every relationship and transaction, economic and otherwise, is a question about people. What is this going to do to people? To me? To those who depend on me? To the community?

Pope Pius XII used two words about the economic life which Protestants will agree are of top importance: Make it more human, he said, and more Christian.

Tinley Teens Drop 3rd Straight by "Squebster"

Three errors proved costly for the Tinley Sportsmen B's as they dropped their third straight Harvey YMCA league game to the Yankees of Harvey 6 to 3.

As it happened the last time it happened this game as the Yankees opened with four runs in the first inning on a walk, two singles and two errors. Tinley was unable to dent Dom Ruffalo until the third when Tom Baptist walked and scored on Tim Van Antwerp's line triple to left. After Don Goessel walked Van Antwerp scored on the catcher's throwing error and Goessel went around to score on a wild pitch and a ground out. That made the score 4 to 3.

Tinley threatened in both the fourth and fifth but failed to score. Harvey picked up its final tallies in the fourth on two hits and an error. Jim Tomlinson allowed 5 hits struck out 5 and walked 2. Dom Ruffalo gave up 2 hits, struck out 9 and walked 4. This game concluded the second round play and Tinley will open the third round Friday against the Phoenix Red Wings.
